Students Begin New Life at Potomac State

Slowly, stealthily a new year creeps upon the bewildered freshmen and the confident sophomores. Their new life at Potomac State College begins with the torture of registration and the fun of freshman week. Then they are caught up in the whirl of learning, participating in organizations, making new friends and creating their own solitude. Then it is graduation before the students realize it. Each one has passed through the eight lives of a Catamount and . . .

Cats Have Another Losing Season

Potomac State's bid to win their season opener was smothered when the Owls from Harford, Maryland, routed the Catamounts 20-18. Quarterback Eddie Williams and Randy DeBastiani scored the three touchdowns for Potomac State.

The Chowan Braves downed the Potomac State Catamounts by a 26-0 score when the Cats traveled to Murfreesboro, North Carolina.

The Catamounts were swamped again, 54-14, by Wesley Jr. College in their third attempt for a first win. Despite the lopsided score, the Cats managed to roll up 154 yards for total offense.

Marshall University Freshmen, aided by Potomac State's fumbles, scampered to a 20-6 victory when the visiting team clashed with the Catamounts. The loss to Marshall was the 19th consecutive loss for the Catamounts.

The Potomac State Catamounts romped to a 20-13 win when the grid team clashed with the Montgomery Junior College Knights at Staymen Field. The win was clinched late in the fourth quarter when Gus Jackson bulled his way into the end-zone on a three-yard run. On offense, Iggie Kalcum notched 81 yards, while Gus Jackson and Eddie Williams each totaled 67 yards. Randy DeBastiani also rolled out a 31-yard total.

The Catamounts failed to make a second win when Ferrum College dealt Potomac State a 48-0 decision.

The Potomac State grid team battled to a 0-0 stand-off when the Catamounts visited the Community College of Baltimore. The Cats blew their initial drive to win midway through the fourth quarter when they failed to score on three chances from the one-foot line.

Potomac State's Catamounts closed out the 1970 grid season at Banner Elk, N. C., with a 21-6 setback at the hands of Lees-McRae Junior College.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Government Acts As Governing

Student Government, the governing order of the Student Body, has as its goals the furthering of school spirit and the achievement of a cordial understanding between students and faculty. Its duties include the organization and management of many activities on campus.

Beginning at registration, the Student Government welcomed freshmen, distributed Freshman Rules, sold beanies, and sponsored a watermelon feast in the Student Union.

The first activity sponsored by Student Government jointly with the faculty was a float in the Forest Festival in Elkins. The governing body helped to coordinate Homecoming-Parents' Day weekend. A thuse, cookout, parade, talent show, game and dance highlighted the weekend activities. Student Government and Circle K co-sponsored three movies presented on campus second semester.

The Legislature worked throughout the year to uphold the Constitution by trying "to promote a common understanding to provide for the orderly conduct of the affairs of the college, to elevate the standards of scholarship, and to increase school spirit."

Mr. David Nuzum is the adviser.

The Pasquino Marks 50th Birthday

The Pasquino, the campus newspaper, had a two-fold purpose this year as it has throughout its 50-year existence. First, it tried to inform its readers about the campus news and views. Secondly, production of the newspaper enriched the journalism curriculum by providing a laboratory for practical experience. The business and circulation staffs were open to all non-journalism students. The Pasquino, a fortnightly publication appearing every two weeks except during holiday and examination periods, was sent to the parents of residents, as well as many alumni, other colleges, the high schools of the tri-state area, advertisers, and friends of the college. Although much time was spent gathering and organizing news, the staff found time to enjoy a Christmas party and the annual spring banquet.

Active Campus Organizations

The Circle K Club of Potomac State College is the only true service organization on campus, and is dedicated to the ideals of service to the college and the community of Keyser. The club was established in 1952, and was issued certificate number six when Circle K became international.

The club is made up of young men of good character and scholastic standing bonded for the common purpose of the uplifting of humanity, and the preservation of the ideals of our democracy. Their only return from this is the thanks and appreciation that comes from such work.

Circle K is one of the most active organizations on campus. Activities this year included operating the used bookstore at the beginning of both semesters, handling ticket sales for home basketball and football games, underwriting to finance a student from Africa who attended Potomac State, providing cakes on birthdays of members of the student body, and helping to pay for the cheerleaders new uniforms.

Other activities included providing workers for the "Side Door" coffeehouse, sponsoring and organizing the Homecoming parade, helping at Parents' Day reception, conducting a Blood Bank on campus, and undertaking the financing for the purchase of a jeep for a former Potomac State Circle K president now with the Peace Corps in Brazil. Circle K also provided "starvation kits" at final exam time and operated a used magazine stand in the library.

WAA Provides Sports For College Women

"A sport for every woman and every woman in a sport" is the motto of the Women's Athletic Association. It was organized to popularize women's athletics, and to provide leisure time activities.

The aims of this organization are to develop standards of leadership and sportsmanship, and to promote those activities which may be adapted to the leisure time of later school. Intramural games are bowling, volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, badminton, and shuffleboard.

The club is open to all girls enrolled at Potomac State College. The gymnasium is open once a week to all girls wishing to participate in WAA.

Miss Margaret Rafter is the adviser.

Insight For Action Members Teach And Entertain Children

Insight for Action does volunteer work with children at the Keyser Elementary School, Developmental Center, and the United Methodist Children's Home.

Activities of the group have included going on a hayride at the Children's Home, playing football games and hiking with the children, helping with arts and crafts, and providing firetrucks for underprivileged children to ride on in the Homecoming Parade.

For a financial activity the group sponsored a shoe-shine in the Student Union.

Inspiration and ideas to think upon were given to the members of the Christian Youth Fellowship of Potomac State College as they met every Monday night in regular session. In its effort to bring Christian Youth into closer contact with the Church and to deepen their devotional lives through recreation and fellowship, the club entered a float in the Homecoming parade, collected chewing gum wrappers to support a needy child, and supported the Episcopal Church's drug seminars. Officers for the year were President, Neva Frantz; Vice-President, Sue Day; Secretary, Wanda Hedrick; and Treasurer, Donna Boyer.

The Singers performed both secular and sacred choral literature chosen from the works of the earliest masters to those of the present day. Performance responsibilities of the group included the Christmas program (given in a special performance for the general public), the Spring program, and the series of programs presented while on tour to high schools throughout central and eastern West Virginia and neighboring states. The Singers were sometimes called upon to perform for various other college programs and functions. Performance activities closed with the Singer's participation in Sermon and Commencement. Director for the Singers was Mr. Richard Davis and accompanist was Mrs. Sharon Davis.

Concert Band Entertains Students Freshman Week

The Potomac State Concert Band is a credit course open to any student with previous band experience. This year, the band was organized during Freshman Week in order to provide entertainment for the students and to acquaint students with the band program at Potomac State. In the early weeks of the fall semester, the band concentrated on light literature suitable for playing at football games and thuses. Later in the season a Christmas concert was presented and in the spring the band presented a program with the Singers.

Stage Band Performs Homecoming Weekend

As the curtains opened, the spotlights danced on the flashy blue jackets and fancy dresses of the Potomac State Stage Band while toes tapped to current jazz-rock arrangements at the fourth annual campus talent showcase during Homecoming-Parent's Day weekend. The Stage Band, a credit course open to students possessing playing skills needed for performing dance-band music, provided its members the opportunity to gain proficiency in the performance of many types of dance-band music. Weekly rehearsals prepared the Stage Band for several concerts including the talent showcase, a performance for a guidance conference held on campus, a half-time performance at a football game, a spring concert in conjunction with a drama production, and the annual spring tour.

Roth Honors Outstanding Military Students

The Roth Military Honorary Society was organized in 1953 to pay tribute to students enrolled in ROTC who had maintained a high scholastic standing in Military Science and in their other academic endeavors. They also had to display moral integrity, and show a genuine interest in the military establishment.

To be eligible for membership a student must attain a minimum grade of a "B" in Military Science and an overall academic average of a "C", and must be invited to join by the membership.

Under the leadership of Mark Angle the society has been active. The annual ROTH banquet was held Nov. 21, 1970. Other first semester activities included inviting new members and entering a float in the Homecoming parade. Second semester Roth sponsored the Military Ball, invited freshman members for the following year, selected new ROTC sponsors, and planned a picnic for the entire membership and the sponsors.

Catamount Rifle Team Has Good Season

The Catamount Rifle Team was sponsored by the Roth Military Honorary Society and is affiliated with the National Rifle Association. To become a member of the team one must meet the requirements set forth by the National Junior College Association. The purpose of the Rifle Team was to encourage rifle marksmanship and shooting safety. Sophomore members were awarded sweaters and freshmen were awarded letters if they competed in at least five matches. During the first semester the Rifle Team competed against Bucknell, Dickinson, and Baltimore of Loyola. Second semester the team had postal matches with the University of Virginia, LaSalle and Rider College. Major David Gannon was the advisor and Dennis Hixenbaugh served as captain for the team.

ROTC Band Performs At Homecoming Game

The Potomac State College ROTC Marching Band was made up of men regularly enrolled in the ROTC program and volunteers from the sophomore class. Members could earn up to thirty-five merits for participation, and most earned one hour of college credit as rehearsals were usually held with the Concert Band. In the fall the band performed in the Homecoming parade, the Homecoming game halftime ceremony, and the Veteran's Day ceremony. The annual inspection, the President's review, and an out-of-town trip highlighted the spring semester.

Dr. Charles Whitehill was the director, and Brent Shaffer served as captain and drum major.

ROTC Drill Team Has Active Year

"I don't know, but I've been told . . . I don't know, but I've been told" to the clump-clump of marching feet rang over the campus as the ROTC Drill Team got in shape during the early months of fall. The ROTC Drill Team, a volunteer organization whose members are selected on a competitive basis for proficiency in drill, was first organized in October, 1957. The Drill Team participated in the Forest Festival Parade at Elkins, W. Va., the Autumn Glory Festival Parade at Oakland, Md., the Potomac State College Homecoming Parade, and Keyser High School Homecoming Parade in the fall. Winter parades included the Frostburg, Md. Christmas Parade and the Keyser Christmas Parade. In the spring the Drill Team took part in the Maple Festival Parade at Meyersdale, Pa., and the Apple Blossom Parade at Winchester, Va. The team was commanded by Cadet CPT Stanley Stewart, and the Deputy Commander was Cadet 1 LT Samuel Scarberry. The faculty sponsor was Captain Edmund F. Roleff.

SIGMA IOTA CHI

Sigma Iota Chi Sorority has been represented at Potomac State College by the Epsilon Chapter since 1923. Greer A. Duncan founded the sorority in 1903 at Alexandria, Louisiana. The sorority's purposes are to perfect, and in everyday life carry out, the meaning of sisterhood, to be forgetful of self and mindful of others, and to reach the highest standards possible, mentally, morally, and physically.

The annual fall rush party was held in the home economics apartment. Twenty-one pledges were received into the sorority. They quickly joined the actives in preparing the first prize float for the Homecoming Parade. In October and November Sigma Iota Chi helped at the refreshment stand at home football games. The Sigma powder puff football team scored two victories against Gammas and Kappas. Other activities were going on a hayride with their brother fraternity, Phi Sigma Nu, and giving a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family. Second semester they sponsored a Sigma Fair and the Sweetheart Ball. The year ended with a banquet at which the new officers were initiated.

During the war the national organization disbanded and Phi Sigma Nu continued as a local organization. In 1947 Phi Sigma Nu was reorganized as a national fraternity with the chapter at Potomac State designated as Beta.

Phi Sigma Nu stresses scholarship, loyalty, and school spirit. This year the fraternity sponsored the Christmas Ball and the coronation of the Christmas Queen, Lydia Clendenin. Phi Sigma Nu also sponsored a float in the Homecoming Parade and several parties throughout the year.

Eta Upsilon Gamma Sorority was founded at Christian College in Columbia, Missouri in 1901. It is the oldest national junior college sorority in the National College Panhellenic. The aims of ETA Upsilon Gamma are to promote achievement, to stimulate school spirit, and to broaden and enrich friendship.

To start off the 1970 activities the annual informal rush party was held and seventeen pledges were initiated into the sorority. At the conclusion of Hell Week activities, Carolyn Roush was selected as the best pledge. In September the Gamma girls played a powder puff football game against Sigma Iota Chi.

Maxine Waggy was elected as the candidate for Miss Catamount and the sorority marched in the Homecoming parade as symbols of school spirit.

In November Melissa Morrone was elected to reign as Queen of the Harvest Swing which was sponsored with the brother fraternity. In December all actives and pledges were guests at the Gamma Christmas party.

Melissa Morrone and Maxine Waggy served as representatives to Panhellenic and Kathy Horn served as freshman representative to Panhellenic with Becki Gnaggy serving as alternate.

Theta Sigma Chi was an active participant in group activities. In the fall it sponsored the election and coronation of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Lana McLaughlin. The Thetas sponsored the Harvest Swing and also a float in the Homecoming Parade. The fraternity enjoyed numerous informal gatherings during the year.

KAPPA DELTA PSI

Established in 1951, Kappa Delta Psi is the youngest sorority on campus. It was established primarily for girls who will transfer to a university and wish to join a national sorority there. Members are expected to uphold the motto of truth, honor, and purity and are encouraged to be examples of good citizenship and scholarship.

The officers, with the assistance of the sponsors, Mrs. Hanlin and Miss Larmoyeux, began the fall term with the sorority's annual rush party. The pleges were soon busied with the construction of a float to represent them in the Homecoming Parade. During Hell Week, pledges were "tested" before they were permitted to participate in a formal ceremony and become Kappas. The end of the semester was climaxed by a Christmas party in the home of one of their patronesses, Mrs. Charles Whitehill. During the spring term, the girls dined together and participated in other activities such as bowling. They also co-sponsored the Easter Ball with their brother fraternity. The year was climaxed by a banquet at which Kappas reviewed their year's activities and next year's officers were announced.

Various activities sponsored by the fraternity this year included dances, the annual rush party, and the building of a float for the Homecoming Parade. The fraternity also planned the Easter Ball and the annual banquet.

Many brothers were active in other campus organizations. President Ron Bowser was an active member of Circle K, Players, ROTC Band, and Panhellenic. Dave Pritts was a menber of Circle K and Players. Don Neeley was a member of Panhellenic, Student Government, and Circle K. Harry Puster was a member of the Agriculture Club and Dick Fauss was a photographer for the college yearbook and newspaper.

The Panhellenic Council governs the Greek organizations of Potomac State College, and correlates their campus activities. The Council's purpose is the promotion of good will and cooperation among the fraternities and sororities.

Panhellenic meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month to consider fraternity-sorority relations and proposed campus activities. Throughout the year the group sponsored informal dances. The most important Panhellenic discussions center on the regulation of Rush Week, Hell Week, fraternal participation in campus elections, and the selection of the fraternity and sorority which, through a system of points, made the greatest contributions to campus life for the year.

Second semester members included R. Bowser, B. Comben, vice-president; G. Dalton, J. Handlan, president; K. Horn, G. Lemasters, T. Linthicum, K. McDowell, K. Miller, M. Morrone, D. Neeley, F. Quinn, secretary; B. Sandy, E. Shingleton, A. Wilson, N. Wilson.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Faculty, Administration Help Guide

Dr. Doster's Message

When I arrived at Potomac State and read the College Annual entitled the Catamount, I thought of the "cat" as a symbolic mascot located at the college on a "mount." One of the professors quickly corrected me and I found that a catamount is "any of various wild cats; cougar, lynx, etc."

Two bits of folklore surround the life of a cat; the first, being clever, and the second, having "nine lives." The editorial staff of the Catamount has chosen for its theme "The Nine Lives of a Catamount." Throughout the pages which follow, the opportunity is afforded to view these nine lives as each unfolds for students on the Potomac State campus: 1) registration, 2) freshman week, 3) learning, 4) organizations, 5) social contacts, 6) solitude, 7) involvement, 8) graduation, and 9) the "yet to come."

Activities in these nine lives certainly touch the high points of student participation in the College program. Students who obtain the most from their college years are those who discipline their efforts and time in a manner which makes involvement possible in each of these. Research on the college learning experience has reinforced what most of us have thought: that the richness of learning takes place as a total experience for the student from the time of registration through the time of graduation in every aspect of academic, personal, and social interaction.

The college that concerns itself with the individual as well as the environmental setting in which he grows, learns, and works, should play a significant educational role in the total life of the student. This college does not content itself with intellectual side of life alone, but also with the physical and social realms in educating the total student. The Catamount should illustrate whether Potomac State is really accomplishing something in total education or not.
